MEET YOUR OCEAN BEACH NEIGHBORS

Harry Masters

(Studio of the Cliffs)

A red-hot Ocean Beach booster and civic leader is this week's subject for the "Meet Your Neighbors" interview. This description is appropriate for Harry Masters, vice-president of the Ocean Beach Kiwanis club.

Harry was born in Newcastle, Pa., on Aug. 27, 1906. He attended the public schools in that city and following graduation went to work as an apprentice in a Newcastle pottery plant. After making chinaware for a while, Harry began to yearn for something more exciting so he wound up in a dynamite factory. He worked at handling black powder for the Grasselli Powder Co. in Newcastle for several years (without mishap we trust) and then took a course in electrical engineering. This course landed him a job with Jones Laughlin Steel Co. in the construction of the first seamless tube steel mill in the United States at Aliquippa, Pa. After completion of the plant, Harry worked there on the maintenance crew.

In Jan. 1929 Harry arrived in San Diego, partly as a result of the "Go West Young Man" spirit and partly because his Newcastle sweetheart, Miss Hazel McConahy (now Mrs. Harry Masters) had come to San Diego earlier to visit her sister. Harry got a job on a construction crew on North Island and later went to work for the Heller's Grocery chain, which merged with the Safeway Stores interests. Harry stayed with Safeway for 17 years, working his way up to the managership of the Ocean Beach store.

In June, 1946, Harry went into business for himself, opening his shiny new Masters Food Shop at 4916 Newport Ave. Besides his activities in the Kiwanis club, Harry is an enthusiastic member of the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce. During the war he served as Coordinator for Civilian Defense of the Ocean Beach, Loma Portal and Point Loma area, a group which is still active under the title of City Disaster Council. He also worked as a first aid instructor for the American Red Cross during the war years.

Harry and his charming wife and two sons, Harry III, 9, and Harold, 5, live at 1735 Froude St. Harry's major hobby is photography and he also professes great interest in hunting although he complains that he doesn't have much time to indulge the latter hobby.

OCEAN BEACH GIRLS AND JAP BUDDHA: Miss Shirley Jensen and Miss Margaret Connors, both of Ocean Beach, pose in front of a 40-foot bronze Buddha near Kamakura, Japan. The two girls are working as civilian employees in U. S. Army Headquarters in Tokyo.

Ocean Beach Girl Tells Experiences In Jap Homeland

Mrs. Elenia Jensen of 4553 Cape May has been receiving some interesting letters from her daughter, Shirley Jensen, who is working as a civilian employee in U. S. Army headquarters in Tokyo. Excerpts from these letters relate:

"This past Saturday (Feb. 8) we planned an all day excursion around Kamakura. We left Tokyo on the 10 a. m. train, carrying our lunch. We were supposed to get off and transfer at Yokohama, but didn't quite make it in the confusion, so we got off at the next stop, Ofuna. It turned out just as well for we saw something new. Not far from the station was a huge stone statue of Buddha, so we took this opportunity to get a close-up view. It stood guard on top of a little hill between the city and countryside. It was very large and old, although the stonework was not of the best.

"We boarded the train again at noon and rode to Kamakura where we got off and walked down to the beach. This beach is supposed to be one of the best in Japan but doesn't compare with

State Aid Sought By Assemblyman For Bay Project

MEASURE REQUESTS SUM OF $1,826,000 FOR BAY BRIDGES, LANDS, ETC.

Requests for state financial aid totaling $1,826,000 for the Mission Bay project are in an Assembly bill and amendments that have been introduced in the state legislature at Sacramento by Assemblyman Frank Luckel of the 78th district, The News was informed this week.

His bill which is co-authored by Mrs. Kathryn Niehouse, of the 79th district, originally asked $1,238,000, of which $803,000 was asked for bridges, etc. to be "allocated to the State Water Resources Board for re-allocation to the city of San Diego for expenditures for payment and for reimbursement for necessary advances made, of the cost of cooperation by the state for the work of improvement on the San Diego river and Mission Bay, adopted and authorized by Congress, July 24, 1946, such reallocation to be made as soon as Congress has appropriated the federal cost for such work." Later, in an amendment by Luckel, this $803,000 request is increased to $1,380,000.

In his letter to the Ocean Beach News Luckel also writes that the $435,000 request for "acquisition of lands, etc. for the Mission Bay development has been increased by amendment to $446,000." The two totals, as increased by his amendments, will be $1,826,000.

San Diego city, evidently, hopes to be reimbursed by the state to the extent of the sum mentioned for city funds being used for the project.

Ocean Beach Team In City's League Ball in Prospect

Efforts are being put forth here this week to organize a hard baseball team in Ocean Beach, to play this season as a member of one of the eight-team San Diego municipal league. Leading the push for a local team is James Anderson, owner of the Ocean Beach Grill, and himself a former professional league player for nine years, mostly in Texas. He reports having about 10 former league pro ball players in prospect for the team, and is confident that a team that will give a good account of itself in the city's leagues can be organized here.

Anderson presented the matter to the directors of the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon at a special called meeting, with a request that the C. of C. sponsor the team. Estimate of $750 was made as the likely cost for uniforms and playing equipment. The suggestion was made that if 15 local merchants at $50 per would underwrite the fund needed and each have their name advertised on the uniforms that the necessary fund could be raised, or by having the names of two business houses advertised on each uniform then 30 merchants, each paying $25. Anderson reported that several of the business men already have indicated financial support for the team.

Sentiment expressed was that the C. of C. would be willing to sponsor the team in the event the local business men would under-

MRS. L. STEWART ELECTED TO DISTRICT OFFICE IN METHODIST WOMEN'S UNIT

Mrs. Loftin Stewart of 4674 Niagara Ave. was elected secretary of Missionary Education for the San Diego District Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church. Mrs. Stewart has been a member of the Point Loma Methodist church since coming to Ocean Beach in 1935, and has worked in the society since that time. For the previous two years she was president of the local unit of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

The San Diego district takes in four counties, Orange, Riverside, Imperial and San Diego. This necessitates for Mrs. Stewart considerable traveling to the various sections of the district, she says.

Mrs. Stewart was one of the district officers who went to Brawley March 4 to conduct one of three seminars held each spring. On March 11 she was in Riverside for a similar meeting. The third seminar will be held at the First Methodist church in San Diego on March 18.

One of the highlights of these seminars is the lecture being given by Dr. George A. Warmer, pastor of the First Church, on Liquor Problems, reports Mrs. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Crandall of 1778 Cable St. and son William have been called to Bastrop, La. by the death of Mr. Crandall's father, W. R. Crandall who died on February 24. The Crandalls motored to Louisiana and will stay at the home of Mr. Crandall's sister, Mrs. H. C. Wales. They also will visit relatives in Natchez, Miss. where Mrs. Crandall formerly lived. Mrs. Crandall is a sister of Mrs. W. H. Lee and Paul Campbell of the Ocean Beach Cleaners.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williams and children, Diane and Scott, of 832 Cordova St., left Wednesday evening, March 5, for Malvern Ark., where they were called by the illness of Mr. Williams' mother. Mr. Williams' mother is much improved, according to reports. En route home the Williams will stop in Bowie, Texas, where they will visit with Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. James Smith. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Smith are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crawford of 4511 Saratoga Ave.

Beauty . . . with eye appeal

Here is a living room with a welcome . . . one that says, "Won't you relax and be comfortable?" The Chester Allens of La Mesa Highlands purposely chose the deep textured broadloom rug, the matching rayon drapes and the soft overstuffed chairs to create just that feeling. Comfort is echoed even in the lighting. The lamps not only look attractive, but they provide plenty of indirect, well diffused light that is easy on the eyes. Reading is a pleasure in this room and so is sewing. Rooms that are furnished in good taste are also lighted in good taste. Many new types of floor and table lamps are appearing on the display floors of electrical appliance dealers, furniture and department stores everywhere. A visit to these display floors will pay dividends in new ideas . . . . . and eye comfort!

HONESTY OF OCEAN BEACH FOLKS AGAIN SHOWN WHEN LOST PURSE IS RETURNED

Honesty of Ocean Beach folks has been proven again, according to Mrs. Pauline Cordiner of 4420 Mentone St. While shopping in Gilbert's store last week Mrs. Cordiner misplaced her purse containing a considerable sum of money. Unaware of her misfortune she continued with her shopping, only to find when trying to purchase an article in another local store that she had lost her wallet. Retracing her steps to the Gilbert store and explaining her loss she was greatly pleased to recover her purse.

Miss Maxine Benson, a clerk, had found the wallet and kept it for its rightful owner. Mrs. Cordiner was so impressed with the clerk's honesty and deeply appreciative that she wanted publicity given to her experience.

Allie Lou Estes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horn of 4931 Coronado Ave., plans to leave for Wichita Falls, Texas next Tuesday, March 18. She will visit relatives and plans to spend the summer there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Patterson, who have been the house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Slaughter at 4754 Del Mar Ave. for the past month, plan to return to Tiffin, Ohio within the next few days. Mrs. Patterson is a sister of Mrs. Leo Slaughter and also an aunt of Mrs. Phil Sjoberg and Paul Slaughter of Ocean Beach, and of Mrs. William Porter of Mission Beach. The Pattersons spent a previous vacation in Florida, and all in fun and good spirit there have been some discussions and comparisons of the two states. But, in that the nieces and nephew are all native-born Californians, The News readers can be sure a lot of favorable comments fell California's way. It is mutually agreed that the climate of San Diego, and specifically Ocean Beach cannot be beat.

11 KIWANIANS IN GOLF TOURNAMENT AT LA MESA; J. SULLIVAN WINS LOW

Eleven members of the Kiwanis club took part in an Ocean Beach Kiwanis golf tournament held on the La Mesa Country club course Sunday. Jerry Sullivan won low score honors, with a net score of 81 strokes for the 18 holes. Other Kiwanians taking part were Martin Murphy, Dr. W. B. Oster, Dr. S. Davenport, Milton Lancaster, Henry Holman, Graham Rogers, Rollin Reed, Wayne Montgomery, Joe Beardsley and Frank Swan. Following the play a lunch was served at the clubhouse.

Nine Baptist Girls Take Part in Play At Long Beach Rally

The play "Radiant Memory" was presented by the "World Wide Guild" Baptist girls of Ocean Beach on Saturday, March 8, in Long Beach, where they met for a Guild rally. Members of the cast were: Rose Mary Taylor, Helen Snelson, Velma Meisen, Kathleen Woodall, Mary Reid, Dorothy Knight, Mary Bell Brewer, Josephine Reid and Eula Huston.

Lucille Libby, the counselor; Martha Shobe, president of the guild; Gloria Crook and Mrs. Nell Brewer accompanied the cast to Long Beach. Four hundred and fifty girls attended the Guild rally.

The slogan of the Guild is: "Worth While Girls of the World Wide Guild Working with God for the Whole World's Good."

the California beaches. From there we walked up to the Kamakura Buddha, the second largest in Japan. It was cast of bronze in 1252 A. D. and is 43 feet high. The work on it is much better than that of the stone statue at Ofuna. Our day was pretty well gone so we headed home after a most enjoyable day."

Japanese Winter Cold

Regarding the weather in Japan she writes, "I wouldn't have minded being in San Diego just recently when you had that spell of summer weather. The weather here is still very cold, but clear most of the time."

In another letter Miss Jensen tells: "Saturday (Feb. 22) we took the train for Atami, a small village about 70 miles south of Tokyo and on the coast. The attraction was a large plum orchard of some 3,000 trees which are in bloom now. When we arrived in Atami we checked in the railway office for directions to the orchard. The interpreter drew a little map and wrote a message in Japanese and in English so that if we got confused on the way we could show the note to Japanese passing by. Without this we certainly could never have made it, for we wound through streets, up hill and down hill before we finally came to the orchard. Five or six times we had to stop, pull out our little map and get directions from some of the people. It was really funny—we would show the map to them and they would start rattling off in Japanese, which, of course, we couldn't make head nor tail of, and point in the general direction. Then we would go on a little farther and go through the same procedure ,once in a while catching a word that we could understand to help us on our way.

"All this time we had been carrying our lunch and Velma's portable radio, so we were really glad when we finally found the plum garden. We ate our lunch in the midst of the flowering trees, enjoying the peace and quiet of the orchard. We took a few pictures, although it was hard to get much except a mass of white in the camera. We started back, getting to the station just 10 minutes ahead of train time. I think we enjoyed the train ride as much as anything for the scenery was lovely and it was such a clear, beautiful day. We saw coastline scenery that was new to us and many picturesque examples of terrace farming, the gardens all laid out so neatly and so scrupulously kept."

To Return Next Fall

Miss Jensen has been in Japan since last August, having gone there to accept a job in the legal section of army headquarters. Accompanying Miss Jensen to Japan was another Ocean Beach girl, Margaret Connors, sister of Mrs. E. J. Beauclaire of 4461 Santa Cruz Ave. The girls plan to return to the States next October.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Muchmore of 3910 Tennyson St. expect to spend next Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ramage at La Jolla. The Ramages are former residents of Ocean Beach and Mrs. Muchmore is chairman of the Recreation Center committee of Ocean Beach.

Richard Nielsen Weds Miss Toni Umphries In Hollywood Ceremony

A wedding of interest to the Ocean Beach community took place in Hollywood on March 5 when Richard F. Nielsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Nielsen of San Diego and formerly of Ocean Beach, claimed as his bride Miss Toni Umphries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Umphries of San Antonio, Texas. The simple ceremony was performed in the Episcopal church in Hollywood.

The bride was attired in a navy blue ensemble, a hat crowned with pink roses and carried a corsage of roses. After the wedding the young couple left for an extensive wedding trip throughout the Pacific coast region.

Mr. Nielsen attended the Green Bay, Wis. high school and the University of Wisconsin, then moved with his parents to Ocean Beach in 1941. He served as a captain in the 15th Air Force in Italy during the war.

Upon returning from their trip, the newlyweds will take up residence in one of the new homes being constructed by the groom's parents in the 4500 block on Del Monte Ave.

'Mr. Adam' Reviewed For Literary Group At Monday Meeting

(By Marian Krettler)

"Mr. Adam," was ably reviewed by Mrs. D. R. Wallace at Monday evening's session of the Ocean Beach Woman's club literary section.

When the male power of reproduction had been destroyed by a suppositional atomic explosion in Mississippi, "Mr. Adam" escaped the fate of his fellow men because, at the time of the disaster, he was deep in a lead mine and thus protected from radioactivity. The amusing story dealt with the increasing importance of "Mr. Adam," the only potential father left on earth, while nations depended on him for the survival of the numan species. Written from the standpoint of a reporter who, when he found no hospitals had reservations in maternity wards, set out to discover why, "Mr. Adam," deals in speculation concerning what might happen should atomic forces be uncontrolled.

Mrs. Joe Beardsley and Mrs. B. H. Neilsen presided over the refreshments while Mrs. Edwin Storm and Mrs. Hazel Brady were the hostesses.

Honoring the feast of Saint Patrick, the tea table was a study in green and white, and the same timely colors were used in the refreshments.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

"Sure, and it's a great day for the Irish!"

And what greater day for the Irish could there be than St. Patrick's Day when the sons and daughters of the Emerald Isle pay homage to their patron saint.

A poet once said that "all the world is Irish on the Seventeenth o' March." And so it would seem, for from Dublin to "Down Under" the "wearin' of the green" predominates on that occasion.

Certainly there are few events so widely observed and fewer still which produce such jollity and enthusiasm.

The world has been enriched by the wit and humor of the Irish, by their warm-hearted impulses, their cheerfulness, and, we might add, their love of a good scrap. America is proud to number among its citizens many who were born in Ireland or who trace their ancestry to that famous isle.

And so, America joins with them in celebrating their Day of days—St. Patrick's Day. "Sure, and it's a great day for the Irish!"

MORE LIGHT—LESS HEAT

The battle over the proposed highway program in Sacramento has certainly generated plenty of heat, but remarkably little light.

One would gather from most of the comments coming out of the State capital that the opponents of the measure do not want better highways. This simply is not the case.

The organizations and individuals who are against the $2.8 billion program recognize the need for improved roads, but they also recognize that the so-called program really isn't a program at all and that there is no way of knowing just how and where the billions that would be paid in taxes during the next decade would be spent. In other words, they want an intelligent, clear-cut program mapped out first before approving a virtual doubling of automotive taxes.

Many vital points have largely been obscured under the barrage of arguments by those who want to railroad the highway program through in a hurry. Hence, the need is definitely for more light—and much less heat.

TIME BOMBS BY VIC

Make our freedom something everyone will want to join in and no one will want to take it away.

The need of the nations must be answered with men.

A lot of people are too busy to learn to deal with the things that keep them so busy.

There are those of us who keep on trying to live in a society that's gone.

Christianity is a way of life where nobody can be disappointed in anybody but himself.

When people talk a lot it may be because they don't know what to say.

A soft answer may turn away wrath but no answer turns wrath into fury.

Hal Lennox of Lemon Grove and Sybil Perry of Frontier Housing project, both pupils of the Gladys Bowen dance studio, Ocean Beach, have won awards on the KYOR "Uncle Willy" program held every Saturday from 10 to 11 a. m. The program is a talent program and the children danced. Sybil Perry has won the five weeks sweepstakes award.

write the necessary expense fund. On motion the matter was turned over to the community activities committee consisting of Arnold Morss, Dave Chandler and Virgil Swoboda. They are to handle the matter and report back to the regular directors meeting to be held next Tuesday evening, March 18.

The plan would be to play the games under auspices of the city's recreation department on fields to be provided by that department, with one game to be played each Sunday during the summer league season. No salary for players is included in the plan, Mr. Anderson's thought being that there are enough former players in Ocean Beach, who, like himself, are eager to play for the love of the game.

Ralph Smith, secretary-treasurer of the San Diego County Baseball Managers association, attended the meeting as representative of the city recreation department. He reported that the department has two leagues of eight teams each in prospect for the summer season. He also stated that at each of these games the "hat is passed" and some money raised for the teams playing.

The H. J. Goldens of 4926 Del Monte Ave. have visitors from New York. They are Captain and Mrs. Larson, who arrived March 15, and plan to spend the remainder of this month with the Goldens. The captain is a cousin of Mr. Golden.

Department Heads For County Fair at Del Mar Selected

Plans for the San Diego county fair to be held at Del Mar June 27-July 6 went ahead at an increased tempo this week with the naming of the heads of the various exhibit departments highlighting a meeting of the Board of Directors of the 22nd District Agricultural association at the county fair offices in Del Mar Monday.

Paul T. Mannen of La Mesa, chairman of the board, reported the following appointments: Alick Bradley of Oceanside (livestock); Dallas Heffelfinger of Grantsville (poultry); John H. Curtis of San Diego (rabbits); J. G. France of San Diego (agriculture and horticulture); Thomas L. Hosmer of Escondido (floriculture); Mrs. John Henning of Encinitas (domestic science), and Roy Keptner Jr. of San Diego (natural resources).

Interest of prospective exhibitors at this year's fair is approaching an all-time high, and last year's record number of entries appears certain to be surpassed, fair officials declared this week.

More than 6500 request-for-space cards are in the hands of people who have indicated an interest in having an exhibit at this year's fair, and with a share of the state-provided fund of $2,000,000 to award as premiums, the San Diego county fair promises to have on display the cream of county-produced exhibits for patrons of the eighth annual festival.

gram chairman, and suggested that the policy of joint meetings occasionally would be a splendid thing for both clubs.

"Our nation's safety is dependent more on the moral fibre of our people than on any army, navy, marine corps or air corps," declared the speaker. "After all it's the character of the average man in the street rather than the great powers of the earth that is going to determine what the world of tomorrow is to be," he said.

"The challenge to be met by the service clubs," he said, 'is first to have vision, second to be friends to the boys and third to serve.'

In conclusion he quoted as the best rule of conduct the scripture which says that "let him who wants to be greatest among you be a servant of all."

At the business session Past Club President Rollin E. Reed was called on by President Henry Holman to present a legion of honor award to MacLean Wilson for longevity of membership in Kiwanis. Announcement was made that Wilson has been a Kiwanis member for 32 years.

Luckel writes that "it is our thought that this surplus money had best be used for highways rather than frittered away in various ways. The above pre-supposes that the senate measure known also as the Collier bill hasn't a chance for passage in the assembly."
